

SPUD-DAY

Saturday Aug 19, 2017

10:00am - 12:00pm

or until gone, whatever comes first.

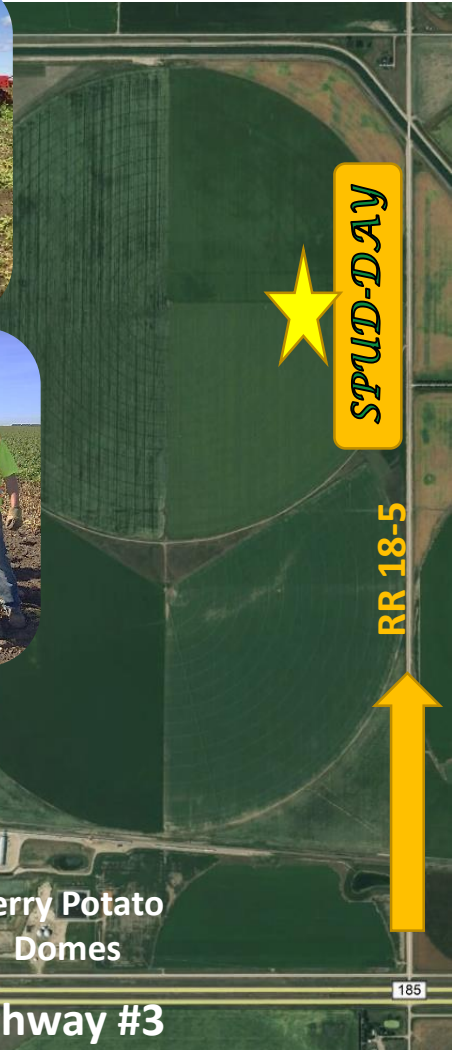

The Perry Farm and the Potato Growers of Alberta invite you to come on out to the farm and pick yourself a free 20lb bag of delicious red potatoes (Mozart) to enjoy.

This is a community potato day event to showcase home grown Alberta produce, and promote local grown fresh potatoes. Potatoes are a thriving industry in Alberta, come and see how they are grown and lifted just for you. 1 mile east and 1.5 miles north of the Perry Potato Domes near Chin.

Note: If there is bad weather -this event will be cancelled.

Access to the field from Range Road 185 – 13.5km east of Coaldale and 2km north of highway #3. Stop at the PGA trailer for a bag and ask any questions about potatoes or the industry. The volunteers on site will guide you to the field where potatoes will be windrowed for you, you can then pick spuds and fill your bag.
